

Bilborough College

Meet the Governors

Governor Profile

DI BIRCH

Member of Employment, Policy & Finance Committee

Di Birch is JC Smith Professor of Law in the School of Law, University of Nottingham, where she has worked since 1975. In recent years she has also been the Director of the Academy Project Unit, which channels the university's contribution to NUSA, the academy of which it is a co-sponsor. Di has two daughters of school age. Her interests include reading, community theatre and singing with the NUSA community choir. As well as being a Governor at Bilborough College, Di is also a Governor at NUSA.