

Bilborough College

Meet the Governors

Governor Profile

FRANCES WARBURTON

Member of Audit Committee

Frances previously attended Bilborough College, following which she attended the University of Sheffield. She holds a BA Hons in Japanese & History and an MA in Translation Studies.

Frances lived and worked in Osaka for 4 years as an English teacher on the Government sponsored JET programme and for Superstop INC., a record label and distributor.

She moved back to the UK in 1993 and worked for Caroline International, a record / CD distributor and exporter and then for Itochu Europe Ltd, a Japanese trading company.

Frances moved back to Nottingham in 2005 to study for an MA at the University of Sheffield and now works as a freelance translator.