

Bilborough College

Meet the Governors

Governor Profile

JANE MCGREGOR

Member of Audit Committee

Jane is married with two daughters who both chose to do A levels at Bilborough College, her youngest is now at university. A local girl, Jane is a qualified social worker and for 15 years worked with families and elderly people in some of the most deprived areas of Nottingham. She then moved to the housing department managing warden aided schemes and emergency alarms systems for elderly and vulnerable tenants, before taking a career break when her youngest daughter was born.

Since then she has found herself in diverse roles, including being an active member of various local community groups and 6 years as a parent governor at a primary school. She has been a J.P. for 13 years serving in both adult and youth courts. Jane currently does part-time voluntary work and is also an invigilator at a secondary school.