TONY HORESEWILL

Associate Governor
Member of Standards Committee

Following undergraduate and postgraduate education at the University of Sheffield, Tony moved to Nottingham in 1979 and has remained there ever since. He is professor of Physics at the University of Nottingham and in parallel with his teaching and research interests he has enjoyed taking on responsibilities for UCAS recruitment and admissions in his department in recent years.

Tony is married with two teenage children, the eldest of whom will soon be attending Bilborough College. The whole family is very actively involved in the sport of orienteering and they can often be found running through forests or other remote terrain.
